

Why join The Mendip Players?

As a member of The Mendip Players you can:

- Audition for and perform in any of our three productions a year
- Promote, direct or produce a play of your own choosing (within reason!)
- Take part in the many production team roles either on or off stage
- Have your say at the AGM and elect members of the committee
- Take part in workshops – learn new skills
- Attend our virtual Film Nights, watching the archives!
- Go on the occasional organised theatre trip
- Attend play readings held throughout the year
- Receive emails concerning the various activities provided by the society and emails forwarded from related societies or other bodies that may be of interest
- Join us for our annual Christmas party and other social events
- Have access to the membership area of our website, where you can find all the various documents and policies produced by the society (this is currently being set up)
- Join a truly democratic and sociable group of like-minded people of all ages and make new friends (especially if you are new to the area)
- Help to provide quality entertainment for the local community and promote the theatre experience to both the young and old
- And don't forget the after-show parties!
